

PUBLIC DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Vantage Hospice has created this Public Disclosure Statement in order to demonstrate the terms and conditions of our commitment to all interested parties.

Our information and dissemination practices pertaining to Public Disclosure can be found on this website, in our Consent and Patient Information Handbook.

Anyone has the right to request information about the ownership group and our management company. Patients, their representatives and interested parties may, upon request, receive information pertaining to the ownership group as well as to the philosophy/mission and practices of our Hospice.

Our Hospice is owned and operated by Vantage Hospice, LLC, whose past and present interest has been to provide excellent care to our hospice patients and family members and to operate our business using the highest ethical practices.

Any patient or interested parties have the right to obtain information on the licensing, credentialing and the services regarding our hospices.

The hospice philosophy, mission and purpose can be found in all our informational brochures, the patient consent and handbook, and in the Public Disclosure Packet.

The hospice philosophy is extended to our patients and family members, our vendors, our private partners (physicians, hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, etc.) and to every governmental, civic, religious, and voluntary agency/organization in our service area.

We publicly disclose the methods by which we protect our patient's rights and the ethical standards by which we conduct business and clinical programs. A copy of specific information may be requested in writing per the HIPPA Regulatory Standards. Vantage Hospice will provide information once a written request has been received if disclosure of such information is permitted by law and regulations.
